

Compass Card offer update, November 2014

The Compass Card is for 20-24 year olds too!

Amaze is extending the Compass Card to include young people aged 20 to 24 (up till their 25th birthday). We'll be introducing the change in two phases:

1. From the end of November 2014, Amaze will be contacting young people who have had a Compass Card before (or their parent carer) and asking if they want to apply for a new Compass Card. They will be sent a young person's Compass Registration Form to complete. You don't need to do anything, but do email compass@amazebrighton.org.uk or call the helpline on 01273 772289 if your contact details have changed.
2. From late February 2015, all young people with significant additional needs will be invited to apply for a Compass Card and Amaze will be telling everyone about the change.

Young people aged 20-24 with a Compass Card will be able to use all the offers listed in this guide, including things like free gym use which was originally for 16-19 year olds. The only exceptions are the limited number of offers that are specially for younger age groups (The Academies on page 5 and Soft Play on pages 14 to 15 for example).

Boulder Brighton (new offer)

Where?

Unit 7b/c, Victoria Road Trading Estate, Portslade, Brighton BN41 1QX
Tel. 01273 422408 www.boulderbrighton.com

What?

The Compass Card holder automatically gets Boulder Brighton's concessionary rate on adult climbing for over 16s (a 15% discount). Boulder Brighton is a bouldering centre. Bouldering strips climbing down to its basics and leaves behind rope and harnesses. Participants just use climbing shoes and a bag of chalk over safety mats and use their wit, balance, technique and strength to climb bouldering routes. You don't need expensive kit or experience to give it a go! If you're in any doubt whether bouldering will suit your child, call Boulder Brighton on the number above.
