

Compass Card offer update, February 2016

The Observatory Science Centre (new offer)

Where?

The Observatory Science Centre, Herstmonceux, Hailsham, East Sussex BN27 1RN (NB. Entrance is on Wartling Road)
Tel. 01323 832731 www.the-observatory.org

What?

Discover the world of science and astronomy at Herstmonceux's unique The Observatory Science Centre, with its beautiful green domes, reflecting and refracting telescopes, hands-on exhibits and daily telescope tours and science shows during school holidays. The centre has a café and shop on site and is open from the beginning of February till the end of November each year. You can also eat your own food in the outdoor covered picnic area. One carer gets free admission when you show the Compass Card.

Please note, The Observatory Science Centre is set within the Herstmonceux Castle Estate (if you want to visit the garden and grounds as well, you can buy joint admission at the castle ticket office – see page x for info or visit www.herstmonceux-castle.com)

How?

Show your Compass Card when you pay.

Otherworld for up to 24s: Same Sky/Different Planet Arts

Where?

Various locations around Brighton and Sussex. Further details confirmed closer to the time – Amaze will keep you updated via the Compass Card app or Compass Team News, or you can contact Same Sky or Different Planet Arts (see above).

What?

Same Sky and Different Planet Arts bring you Otherworld, a unique, interactive space that combines theatre, music and storytelling with the latest sound and video technology to stimulate the senses of disabled children and young people and their family and friends.
(continued...)

Otherworld Immersive Theatre combines traditional storytelling, theatre and music with the latest immersive interactive technology including sound beams and audio and video projections. Otherworld Film Nights are exciting interactive film nights where participants join performers for moving images, story, film and a whole lot more. Prepare yourself for an evening full of surprises...

Six Otherworld performance events in 2015/2016. Amaze publicises each event fully closer to the time – check Compass Team News or the Compass Card app for the latest information or visit www.amazebrighton.org.uk Alternatively, call Ariane at Different Planet Arts on 07711 717634 or Same Sky on 01273 571106.

NB. Compass Card holders over 19 are advised to check when they book that the performance will be suitable for them.

How?

The best way to book tickets for the next Otherworld event is online at <http://buytickets.at/samesky> or via the Same Sky website at www.samesky.co.uk You can also reserve tickets by email or 'phone and then pay on the day – email ariane@samesky.co.uk or call Ariane on 07821 328973. There are no additional booking fees to pay. If you're booking online, click the Compass Card option. If you're booking by 'phone mention the Compass Card. Compass Card holders and one adult carer pay £5 (usual price £7), so make sure you take the Compass Card with you to trigger the discount.

Brighton Bowlplex (changed offer)

Where?

Park Square, Brighton Marina Village, Brighton BN2 5UT
Tel. 01273 818180 www.bowlplex.co.uk

What?

Ten-pin bowling at an award-winning centre with 26 computerised bowling lanes. There's free parking for all Brighton Bowlplex users in the multi-storey car park opposite the centre. Compass Card Offer: The Compass Card holder and up to three others pay £3.50 per person, per game Monday-Friday from 10am-6pm during term time. The offer can be withdrawn or amended at any time, can't be used in conjunction with any other offer and is subject to the discretion of the Duty Manager.

(continued...)

Accessibility: There's disabled access at Brighton Bowlplex which includes ramps onto the lanes (where required), ball ramps and lane bumpers for use with or for specific info on the number above.

How?

Show your Compass Card when you pay. Remember to let staff know if you need a lane with disabled access. To book in advance, call 01273 818180 and say you qualify for the Compass Card discount – don't forget to take it with you and show it when you arrive. If you need a lane with disabled access, tell staff when you book.

