Medical Negligence and Education Law

10 June 2025 17:00 to 19:00

13 June 2025 10:00 to 14:00

Our medical negligence legal experts may be able to help you:

- Have you or a loved one suffered because of poor care or a medical negligence?
- Have you experienced a delay in diagnosis or treatment?
- Have you lost a family member due to substandard medical care?
- Have you been given incorrect medical advice or treatment?

Even if you are not sure if you have a case but have questions you would like to discuss or answer, one of our experienced lawyers can have a free confidential chat with you.

Our Education Law experts focus on special educational needs and disability work specialising in Education Health and Care (EHC) plans including:

- Advice on the whole process of securing an EHC plan from start to finish.
- Expert advice on the legalities and evidence required to secure an EHC needs assessment and then to secure an EHC plan.
- Representing parents in appeals to the SEND tribunal
- Assessing the content of EHC plans and advise on whether they are legally enforceable and the quality of provision.
- How to secure changes to special educational provision including increases to therapy provision, teaching input and expertise and changes in school/college placement.
